Evangelism Corner

Feed the hungry and help those in trouble. Then your light will shine out from the darkness, and the darkness around you will be as bright as noon. Isaiah 58:10

When people talk about evangelism—which is bringing the Good News of the Gospel to others—it means we help them learn that Christ is Lord. Some people think the best way to evangelize is to approach people about the Gospel through a specific activity. But can we initiate relationships daily as “evangelists” by living as examples of what it means to be a Christian? Surely it is the Holy Spirit working through us to spread the message and when we shine bright as Christians—when we are helping others and showing people our love for them—we open the door for that conversation! By living our lives as “evangelists” every day and not just talking in spurts about being a Christian, we'll attract people who see Jesus shining through in our lives. Does your light shine bright?

Feed My Lambs: John 21:15 ... He saith unto him, Feed my lambs.

Faith Lutheran Church established a fund to help members who have come upon hard times, are struggling financially and need help getting some essentials. The fund is called "Feed My Lambs" and it supports the church's effort to feed and care for our members spiritually and financially. Members contribute to the fund, and it is disbursed by the Elders through gift cards to Kroger and Walmart. If you are in need, please contact your elder for help. Your elder keeps the conversation in confidence, prays for you and helps you get some essentials via the gift cards. If you would like to contribute to Feed My Lambs, please write a check to Faith Lutheran Church and write "Feed My Lambs" in the memo section on the bottom. Just put the check in the offering plate as you enter church. We pray, though this is just a little help to people, that the Lord will continue to bless this effort.
